Every one of our cars is carefully selected and must pass our 110-point mechanical, appearance and detail inspection before it ever goes on the lot. If it fails, we won't sell it. We back that up with a 30-day or 2500 km exchange policy, a 6-month or 10,000 km powertrain warranty and a 30-day mechanical warranty. And we put it in writing. Few used car dealerships can offer you that kind of peace of mind. But then again, you would expect a company established in the 60's to be big on peace.

Retailers call bylaw 'flawed'

Debbie Edmonds, manager of licensing and legislative services for the Town, said the fee covers the cost of administering the licence, and any inspections or approvals required. She explained part of the licensing fee covers the cost of consultation with the Ministry of Health inspectors, and some goes toward fire inspectors.

Henderson pointed out that the mall has always had annual fire inspections.

"The bylaw is driven for the consumer, for public health and safety," said Edmonds.

Councillor Bryan Lewis balked at that notion of the licence being for consumer protection, calling it "way off base."

"I don't think it's fair," said Henderson, who added that the Town of Milton, and the cities of Toronto and Hamilton do not charge their general retailers a licence fee.

HERMINIA HENDERSON

Henderson said the fact that home-based businesses are not being charged a licence fee is penalizing those retailers who operate from storefronts.
