

Man charged

A Halton Hills man was charged after a woman was threatened Thursday afternoon on Guelph St. near McDonald's restaurant.

Halton Police report between 4 and 4:30 p.m. a man made a threat to cut a 21-year-old

Georgetown woman's throat, then he left the area.

On Friday police arrested and charged a man in connection with the incident. Charged with uttering a threat to cause bodily harm, and disobeying a court order is Warren Frank Dankovic, 23, of Tenth Line.

POLICE BLOTTER

Police say as a result of their investigation into the threatening incident, another man, who was not involved in the incident, was found to be in possession of a homemade box cutter knife.

Charged with carrying a concealed weapon is Eric Kenneth Varley, 23, of Hwy. 7.

Window smashed

Halton Police report $500 damage was caused at Ollie's

Cycle & Ski on Main St. in Georgetown when a window in the door was smashed late Friday or early Saturday.

Tree toss

A five-year-old Maple tree was cut down and thrown over a fence at a Kingham Rd. house last Monday.

Enjoying the GoodLife

Faye Stewart, general manager of the new GoodLife Fitness Centre in Loblaws' Real Canadian Superstore on Guelph Street, tested out some of the equipment during the grand opening last week. The Georgetown GoodLife, with 8,500 square feet of space, is the 50th location in the popular Canadian chain of fitness centres started up by London, Ontario entrepreneur David Patchell-Evans.
