

Artists show work

Terry Rammell was one of the artists featured at the Credit Valley Artisans' (CVA) Meet The Artists reception held at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre's Gallery on Sunday afternoon. The Palette and Pencil Guild of the CVA is holding its annual Show and Sale, which continues during library hours until February 27.

Grate Groan-up Spelling Bee seeks three-member teams

The third annual Grate Groan-Up Spelling Bee is already shaping up to be an even bigger success than last year's. Team spots are filling fast. Many teams are returning spellers hoping to grab that coveted Bee Bauble, the Grate Groan-Up Spelling Bee trophy.

This year the evening event for adult spellers will take place Thursday, May 4 at Halton Hills Banquet Hall, Milton. To date, the Bee has received interest from numerous north Halton businesses and individuals willing to support this worthwhile fund-raising opportunity. Deadline for team registration is February 28.

The night promises the usual hilarity and comic tension as teams of three challenge one another for spelling supremacy.

Interested in getting involved? If you think your business or company would be interested in participating please contact Literacy North Halton at 905-873-2200 or literacy@bellnet.ca for more BUZZ on The BEE.
