St. Paul's Choir to present Acton concert

Combining an Evensong service and concert, Trinity United Church, 70 Mill St., E. in Acton will host Milton's St. Paul's 40-voice United Church choir on Sunday, March 5, at 7.30 p.m.

The choir, under the direction of Judy Hunter, with accompanist Dawn Brodie, flautist Nicolette Parant and soloist Ron Break will provide instrumental numbers, anthems, congregational hymn singing, gospel music and the evening hymns of the church. All are welcome. A free will offering will be accepted.

The program has been co-ordinated by Trinity organist and choir director Dr. George Elliott in fulfilling a bequest to the music program of the Acton congregation.
