Getting ready for the future

Race car driver Tim Norris of apprenticeship.com of Waterdown, explained the inner workings of a race car to Grade 9 student Lindsey Jakuszyk at the Careers Unlimited 2006 exhibition at Christ the King High School in Georgetown. The show featured exhibits from many companies and educational institutions to give students a chance to make informed career choices. Left: Shannon Pitt of Ray Johnson & Associates Inc Co-operators Insurance of Georgetown explained the benefits of safe driving to student Ryan Kuzyshyn.
