Teen TV stars to make mall stop

Family Channel's Spring Break-Out makes a stop tomorrow (Saturday) at the Georgetown Market Place from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. with Kate Todd and Nathan Carter stars of Radio Free Roscoe.

Todd and Carter will meet with fans and sign autographs. Spring Break-Out visitors will also receive free markers from Laurentien and will have the opportunity to enter a draw for Laurentien prize packs.

According to the Family Channel, "Radio Free Roscoe follows the lives of four diverse and quirky teenagers living in the fictitious suburban town of Roscoe. Determined to pave their way at Henry Roscoe High School, Robbie McGrath, (Nathan Stephenson), Ray Brennan (Ali Mukaddam), Lily Randall (Kate Todd) and Travis Strong (Nathan Carter) launch an anonymous underground radio station where they voice the hopes, fears and confusion of their generation. For these teens, everything is changing way too fast: their bodies, their interests, their friends and the expectations placed on them. It is also a time in their lives when anything seems possible, including falling in love with your best friend, or your worst enemy.

VideoSelf opens

Dillon Crosby of VideoSelf demonstrates the manner in which one can rent or purchase a DVD movie from the 27/7 location at 136 Guelph Street in Georgetown. The machine can hold more than 2,000 DVDs and is searchable for the newest releases. The store offers access cards and has discounts for movies returned in six hours. The Georgetown VideoSelf location is one of six in Ontario.

Their daily radio show, called "Radio Free Roscoe," is free from advertising, free from hype, free from hypocrisy, it is the place where these amateur DJ's find their own identity. Daily, they meet head-on the stress of conforming to a crowd that demands that they be like everyone else: Radio Free Roscoe is about being a teenager, growing up and knowing you're not alone."
