Fire department reminder:

Burn permits required

Halton Hills Fire Protection and Prevention Services reminds area residents that they need a burn permit before doing any open burning.

Chief of Fire Prevention and Public Education Harry Olivieri says whether the fire is for recreational purposes or the disposal of brush and limbs, area residents need to call the fire department to arrange for a site inspection of the property. If the site meets the criteria of the application, a permit will be issued on site.

"There is currently no fee structure in place for the permit, so this in itself should be an incentive to obtain a permit before conducting any burns," said Olivieri.

"Springtime usually sees a sharp increase in calls for grass and brush fires which can cause extensive damage as well as threaten buildings and neighbouring properties," said Director of Fire Services Bob Meads. "It is not uncommon for a grass fire fuelled by wind conditions to destroy a number of acres/bush before being brought under control by fire crews."

He added very few fires occur on properties where a permit has been issued.

The burn permit process, which takes only about 30 minutes, includes a number of safeguards against fires by monitoring of wind conditions, smog and heat advisories and moisture conditions, which all play a significant role in the prevention of fires.

For more information on burn permits or to obtain call Halton Hills Fire Protection and Prevention Services at 905-877-1133.

Clean Up Halton Hills!

It's Your Community ~ Become involved!

Spring has arrived and now is the time to clean up our town and make it beautiful again! All residents, businesses and groups of all ages are asked to participate!

Second Annual "20 MINUTE MAKEOVER" is back by popular demand! Friday, April 21st, 2006 at 2 p.m.

Employees and students are encouraged to go outside and do a quick 20 minute litter pickup of their premises, school yard or neighbourhood. Pitch in and contribute to the environment during Earth Week. You will see what a difference a small amount of time and effort will make to our community.
