Staff Writer

The number of employees who earned six-figure salaries was up at the Town of Halton Hills, Halton Region and both Halton school boards last year.

At the Town last year, seven employees earned $100,000 or more compared to six in 2004, and at Halton Region the number of top earners jumped to 60 last year, four more than the previous year.

Employees who earned $100,000 or more at Halton Catholic District School Board was up to 19 from 16 in 2004, while staff members who made the big bucks at Halton District School Board jumped by 4 to 36 last year.

The names and salaries of the top earning public sector employees were included on the Public Sector Salary Disclosure Report for 2005, recently released by the Ontario Ministry of Finance.

The following is the breakdown of some top-earning public sector employees in Halton:
