Wall to Wall opens in Acton

Halton Region offers marketing workshop for entrepreneurs

Attracting new customers is critical to growing a business and making it more profitable. However, this may be the hardest task faced by entrepreneurs. Most small business owners don't have the time or staff to manage new business development.

That's why Halton Region is offering the Building a Marketing System Workshop. Offered by the Region's Business Development Centre, this workshop will show business owners, executives, marketing professionals and students how to develop a successful marketing system.

This one-day workshop will be held at the Halton Regional Centre, 1151 Bronte Road in Oakville from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in May, September and November. The registration fee is $266.43 (including GST).

For more information and to register, contact the Halton Region Business Development Centre at 905-825-6000, toll-free at 1-866-4HALTON or visit www.halton.ca.
