

Two-day ArtsVenture is newest addition to Arts Week 2006

The artists of Halton Hills invite you to go on an ArtsVenture at the Gellert Centre on Saturday and Sunday, April 29 and 30.

For your convenience, area artists will display and sell their artwork at this central location from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days, and show you how to enhance your home with "one-of-a-kind" art produced locally.

This is a new 'venture' this year, with the idea of providing a single location, so that homeowners and art lovers can see a wide range of artists' work with little effort or traveling.

The Gellert Centre was chosen for its proximity to Georgetown South, and organizers are hoping that many of our newer residents will come and see what the local arts community has to offer.

Artists represented include ArtsVenture organizer Cathy Parker of Acton, who as an artist herself, works in oil, watercolour, glass framework and textiles.

Glen Williams potter Carol-Ann Michaelson will show us some of her award-winning pottery. Janine Minor, another Glen Williams artist, will present works in charcoal and pastel.

The six artists belonging to Innerscapes will be there to display their eclectic mix of media. Lynne Ellis and Barbara VanSickle will display their pottery, which ranges from functional stoneware to decorative Raku pieces. Gretchen Day will display her watercolours, fabric designs and photographs. Well known local nature artist, Laura Kingsbury, will be there too. Glass artist, Virginia Wilson Tocalino, will show us her Venetian style glassware.

The Hobby Horse Quilt Shoppe will display their famous quilts that folks come from miles around to see.

The artists of the Williams Mill Gallery will give you a sampling from the 30 artists who make up their Visual Arts Centre in the Glen. Sharon Chalmers will show her mixed media paintings, which often incorporate collage and calligraphy.

For those looking for art to display indoors and out, Limehouse metal artist Doris Treleven will show us her unique pieces. The Credit Valley Artisans will display their members' work and provide course and membership information.

The Artisan's Attic will show samples of the work created by a co-operative of many local artists and artisans. Local art casting company, Artcast, will have a display showing how their casting process works. Which Craft will display samples from their Kids Art Studio Experience, and explain their programs available for kids.

Various performing arts groups will also be represented. Find out how to buy tickets or get information on how to join Georgetown Globe Productions, the Georgetown Bach Chorale, Georgetown Little Theatre, Georgetown Choral Society, Georgetown Children's Chorus, and Center Stage School of the Arts.

There is no admission fee. For details on artists and on other Arts Week activities, see www.haltonhill-sartsweek.ca.

NOTICE OF PASSING OF A ZONING BY-LAW

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Caledon passed By-law 2006-50 on April 18, 2006 under Section 34 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, as amended.

The purpose of the by-law is to regulate the use of lands and the character, location and use of buildings and structures in the Town of Caledon.

The effect of this by-law is to repeal and replace Comprehensive Zoning By-law 87-250, as amended up to and including December 31, 2005, with a new Comprehensive Zoning By-law for all lands in the Town of Caledon, except for those lands within the Niagara Escarpment Plan and those lands that are the subject of an amendment to By-law 87-250 that has come into force since December 31, 2005. By-law 2006-50 will not apply to lands within the Oak Ridges Moraine Conservation Plan until the Oak Ridges Moraine zoning by-law, being By-law 2003-183, comes into force, and By-law 2006-50 will not apply to lands that are to be the subject of an environmental and open space zoning by-law until that by-law is passed and comes into force.

AND TAKE NOTICE that any individual, corporation or public body may appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board in respect of the by-law by filing with the Director of Planning and Development, at the Town of Caledon, 6311 Old Church Road, Caledon, ON L7C 1J6, not later than the 16th day of May, 2006, a notice of appeal setting out the objection to the by-law, the reasons in support of the objection, together with a cheque in the amount of $125.00 made payable to the Minister of Finance, and a cheque for $150.00 made payable to the Town of Caledon.

AND TAKE NOTICE that only individuals, corporations or public bodies may appeal the zoning by-law to the Ontario Municipal Board. A notice of appeal may not be filed on behalf of an unincorporated association or group. However, a notice of appeal may be filed in the name of an individual who is a member of the association or the group on its behalf.

A copy of the by-law can be found on the Town of Caledon website at www.town.caledon.on.ca/townhall/departments/planningdevelopment/zoning_bylaw.asp Any inquiries regarding this by-law should be directed to the Town of Caledon Planning and Development Department.
