Bulldogs fall in pre-season finale

The Halton Hills Bulldogs suffered an offensive power outage over the final two periods of their last game of the pre-season on Saturday, falling 12-5 to visiting Orangeville at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex.

Tied 4-4 after the first period, the Northmen outscored the hosts 6-1 in the second frame and blanked Halton Hills until the final buzzer.

Nic Grasby (2), Justin Stuebing, Cameron Flint and newly-named captain Travis Bland scored for the Bulldogs, who finished the exhibition schedule with a 2-2 record and begin the regular season this weekend with games in Akwesasne and Cornwall.

The Bulldogs' home opener will be on Sunday, May 7 against Scarborough at 6 p.m.
