Riverfest Norval 2006 is holding a course— ProjectWET Training— for anyone who is interested in learning how to teach the importance of water to children from preschool to Grade 12. A session will be held in Norval on Saturday, June 3 from 8:30 a.m.-3:30 pm. Because of generous donations by the course co-ordinator, they are able to offer a one-time-only low fee of $25 for this course. The only way to obtain an all-inclusive ProjectWET resource manual is to attend one of these six-hour training sessions. For more information check www.riverfest-norval.ca or contact the course co-ordinator Teresa Rigg at 905-873-0614. Space is limited so pre-registration is necessary.

Is there a baby in your future? Halton Region Health Department Healthiest Babies Possible prenatal program is accepting registration starting Thursday, June 1 for its six-week program, 7-9 p.m. at Ontario Early Years Centre-Georgetown, 96 Guelph St. To register call 1-866-442-5866.
