

Jags cap unbeaten season with title

Christina Bruno had opened the scoring for the home side while goalkeeper Brittney Metcalfe made several key saves. There is no OFSAA tournament at the junior girls' level.

Christ the King's Ryan Thomson was the lone local-area qualifier for next week's OFSAA Golf Festival in Ingersoll after placing third individually at the Golden Horseshoe championships last Thursday at Peninsula Lakes near Niagara Falls.

Thomson shot a round of 75 to earn a spot in the provincials along with the team from Burlington's Notre Dame. Brian Cvetkovic of Burlington Central edged out Georgetown's Luke Ovenden in a playoff for the final OFSAA berth after both finished regulation play at 76.

Ovenden shot the low round of the day with a 73 last week at Oakville's Glen Abbey in the final event of the Halton series which determined the GHAC field.

Open Houses on the Durable Halton Plan: Building our Future Landscape

What Halton Region looks like and how it functions depends on you. Your contributions are needed to help us build the Durable Halton Plan. This Plan will be our blueprint for building Halton's sustainable and healthy communities well into the future. It will determine where and how we grow, and what we protect. This is your opportunity to help shape Halton's landscape for the next century.

The Durable Halton Plan will respond to the Provincial Growth and Greenbelt Plans, help us meet provincial requirements and ultimately, assist us in developing the next Official Plan.

To help us plan for the future together, Halton Region will host open houses to provide Halton residents and businesses with the opportunity to get involved and learn more about the Durable Halton Plan.

Let's shape Halton's landscape together. Please join us to plan our future at one or all of the Open Houses listed below.
