Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Sara Doolan and Andy Cardin. Doolan, an infielder on the Bearcats girls fastball team was chosen for being the most improved player this year. Cardin, a member of the golf team, shot a 78 at Haltons (Glen Abbey) and competed at Peninsula Lakes in Welland for GHAC. He was even going into the last 3 holes (all par 5's) & double bogeyed.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Chelsea Jensen and Byron Hackett. Jensen was the lone Rebel to qualify for the OFSAA track and field championships in Etobicoke, finishing 19th in the midget girls' javelin. Hackett placed third at the GHAC meet in the senior boys' triple jump and just missed moving on to the provincials after his efforts at the OFSAA regionals.

Christ the King High School Athletes of the Week are Krysta Landry and Ben Carter. Landry, a midfielder, scored twice for the junior Jaguars in their rousing 3-2 victory over Loyola in the Halton semi-finals and helped CTK on to its first-ever regional soccer title. Carter, a Grade 10 student, played in the second row of the Jags' rugby team and was a solid contributor to the first-year team.

Local athletes shine at elementary track meets

Alexandra Jarvis of Stewarttown Middle School obliterated the former meet record in the intermediate girls' 1,500-metre run and helped the Stingers finish second overall in the team standings at the Ortwein track and field meet in Burlington.

Jarvis, a 12-year-old Grade 7 student, crossed the finish line in a time of five minutes and 11 seconds, nine seconds faster than the previous fastest run over that distance at the Ortwein event, which involves some of the larger schools in Halton Region.

Jarvis also won the 800m race and the triple jump by comfortable margins. Stewarttown placed second overall as a school, well back of overall champ E.J. James of Oakville.

Georgetown's Centennial Middle School also sent several athletes to the Ortwein meet and had some top-three finishes. Following are the medal-winning performances by Halton Hills athletes at the Ortwein competition:

CANADA MORTGAGE AND HOUSING CORPORATION

DOES YOUR RENTAL PROPERTY NEED MAJOR REPAIRS?

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS
Residential Rehabilitation Assistance Program (RRAP)

Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC) is providing an opportunity for landlords in Ontario under the Residential Rehabilitation Assistance Program (RRAP).

Limited funds are available in 2006 to repair or rehabilitate a rental or rooming house property to a minimum level of health and safety or to convert non-residential properties into affordable rental or rooming house accommodations.

Landlords must submit applications by 4:30 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time, July 7, 2006. Applications received after this time will not be considered.

Homeowners and private entrepreneurs owning existing family residential properties in Ontario may also apply for RRAP funding to create secondary suites or garden suites for low-income seniors or disabled adults. The secondary/garden suites deadline may be extended depending on number of proposals received.

Please note: Application submission does not guarantee financial assistance. Funding expires March 31, 2007. Funding is available for "Off Reserve" properties only. Work started before loan approval is not eligible for funding.

To obtain an application package, visit www.cmhc.ca, or call 1-800-704-6488 or e-mail rrap_ontario@cmhc-schl.gc.ca
