Great Scots!

31st Highland Games a success

The Georgetown Pipe Band, which won the Grade 5 class, takes part in the opening ceremonies of the Highland Games Saturday afternoon at the Georgetown Fairgrounds. (Left) Lauren Mai displays some fancy footwork while competing in the Intermediate Horn Pipe dance.

Joel Thiessen competes in the caber toss during the heavyweight events at the Georgetown Highland Games Saturday.
