

Village Festival 2006

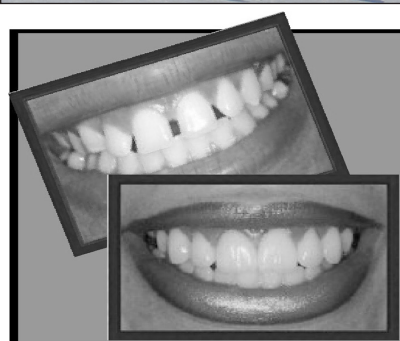

The annual downtown Georgetown Village Festival was held Friday and Saturday and among those keeping the crowds entertained was Mark Sakalauskas, alias Scramble Lock, a member of the Fantastic Poppers, who performed a dance called "Lockin" Saturday afternoon.

There was lots of entertainment at the Village Festival Saturday as Elizabeth Shelley from the Halton Hills School of Dance performed a movement libre dramatique (left) while entertainer Trulee Odd kept the crowd amused by chowing down on a really hot snack (above centre) and also riding a 10-foot unicycle blindfolded while juggling machetes.
