

Learning in space

About 300 Georgetown District High School science and tech students in Grades 11-12 recently had the opportunity to sit in on a teleconference involving Canadian astronaut Dr. David Williams as he performed space equipment testing and later took questions from his inquisitive audience. GDHS was just one of three Ontario schools and 10 across Canada who were linked up to the learning pilot conference, which was sponsored in part by the Canadian Space Agency and NASA. Students were encouraged to submit questions for Dr. Williams and one GDHS student, Daniel Stepner, had his answered. GDHS teacher Olga Michalopoulos said she's hopeful that there will be future opportunities for students to participate in such educational teleconferences, perhaps even involving passive experiments on the Space Shuttles.

Wanted: Golfers

Halton Hills Community Support and Information is still looking for golfers to participate in our third annual golf tournament to aid Off the Wall Youth Centre in Acton and Open Door Youth Centre in Georgetown.

The tournament will be held on Saturday, July 8 at Acton Meadows, with a 7 a.m. start. Whether you are a good golfer or a duffer, the day promises to be one of good golfing, great food and fun. It includes prizes and silent auction.

The cost is $85 per person/teams of four. The fee includes 18 holes of golf, golf cart (two per cart) and steak or chicken barbecue dinner. For more information, or to register, call Amanda Kostjuk or Amanda Byers, 519-853-9825.

Seniors information

Home Maintenance workers are needed to perform indoor and outdoor maintenance tasks for seniors. If you would like to work on a part-time, casual basis and be paid according to the task completed, then this might be a great way to spend some free time making someone happy! Home maintenance work includes lawn cutting, gardening, household repairs, and various cleaning requests.

Friendly Visitors are in demand! If you would like to volunteer for about an hour a week providing an in-home visit to someone who would like companionship and conversation, we would be delighted to hear from you. Right now there are seniors in both Acton and Georgetown waiting for a visitor to either visit at their home or accompany them on a social outing.

If you have the time and willingness to either be a Home Maintenance Worker or a Volunteer Visitor, please contact Kim at 905-873-6502 or Terri at 519-853-3310. All workers and volunteers must be interviewed and screened.

Meals on Ice

We are pleased to be able to offer you frozen entrée choices through Private Recipe and Entrée Plus Foods. Both companies offer a wide variety of fully cooked, frozen entrée dinners, soups and desserts. For details, please contact Terri in Acton at 519-853-3310 or Liz in Georgetown at 905-873-6502
