Making a KASE for children's art

Janette Gray, owner of KASE (formerly Which Craft), stands in front of some of the artwork her students created. KASE is an art studio dedicated to children that provides hands-on education with pure fun in an art studio setting. KASE stands for Kids Art Studio Experience and is located at 72 Main Street in downtown Georgetown. Art classes are available five days a week and summer camps are also available. For information call 905-877-8444 or visit the website at www.KASE.ca.
