Titles hard to find for host teams

More than 1,000 players endured last weekend's scorching heat in the 72-team Georgetown Soccer Club All-Star Tournament, the third year it has been held at four local-area facilities.

Just one host team made it to the championship game in their division, as the Georgetown All-Stars H was downed 3-0 by the Clarkson Comets in the final for the boys' under-9 Silver age group. The event uses a seven-aside format.
