Nala

Nala is a long haired patch tabby born Apr '03. She would be suited to an adult household, or one with older children, with no other cats. She is friendly and quiet. Nala has had trust issues, but is now becoming more comfortable with people. Nala would be PERFECT for an older couple, or person. She has been here OVER a year!!! She would love a new home with someone who is willing to take time to make her feel comfortable. Please consider taking the time to give this beauty a chance, as she is beginning to give up hope.
