IN MEMORIAM

MEEKINS, Raymond
August 23rd, 2005

In loving memory of a dear Husband, Step-Father and Step-PaPa.

Everyday in some small way, Memories of you come our way. Always remembered in our hearts.

Love, Vickie, Ivan, Doug, Lisa, granddaughter Bailey, sisters and brothers, family and friends

HOLTON, Adam

In loving memory of a friend and teammate.

One year has passed and you're missed more everyday. At every game and every practice we know you're there with us every step.

27 FOREVER

Halton Hills Jr B Bulldogs and Halton Hills U19 Bulldogs

R I P

Adam Holton
June 3rd, 1986 - August 22nd, 2005

Dear Adam,

A year has passed and we all miss you like it was yesterday. It is very hard to think back to that terrible day one year ago. This accident was the hardest thing we all had to go through, but you made us all stronger people. Every time we see the number 27 you're the one we think of, or when we see a puck of dip, or a spitter, you're the first person who comes to mind. The sound of a guitar playing takes us back to happier times when you would play for us. We all miss the weekly Bulldogs games that we would go watch you play and the parties we had at your house. Most of all we miss the funny stories you would tell that made us all laugh. There never was a dull moment when you were around. You always knew what to say to make someone smile. Now instead of you telling us the stories to make us laugh, we all laugh about funny stuff you did. It is one of the best feelings when someone stops to tell a good Adam story. We all know you're still around watching over us, that is why the memory of Adam Holton lives on inside of everyone who was close to him and the memory of him will forever be alive. Adam you have left a lasting impression on us all, you have no idea how much we all miss you. Keep on jamming with the legends babe, try to teach them a thing or two. God only takes the best ones to be angels, which is why He took you. It takes big feet to fill an angel's shoe, which is why you were the perfect pick.

*A year has passed but the memories last
"SEE YOU WHEN WE ALL COME HOME"
Forever in our hearts is where we will keep you, friend
We MISS and LOVE you so much*

IN MEMORIAM

PRESSWOOD, Delores (Broomhead)

We knew your skies weren't blue
And the roads were getting tough for you
But you fought that fight
And you did the best you could do
In loving remembrance of our wife, grandmother, and great grandmother on the anniversary of when God called you home.

Love Jim and family

MEEKINS, Raymond (Ray)

For a dear brother who passed away August 23, 2005

*Sadly missed but not forgotten,
Hector (May, Gerry) and Barry*

BARTLETT, Edith - In loving memory of a dear mother who passed away August 21, 2003.

Always in our hearts.

Daughter Pat, Phil and Pam

CARDS OF THANKS

SPARLING, Eric Ryerson

Words are not enough to express our deep felt gratitude for the support we received from family and friends in the passing of Eric. Just ask any one of us what "community" means and it would be a lengthy conversation. There were days when our home either looked like a florist or a cafeteria. We are so thankful for the cards of encouragement, the vast array of flowers, plants and delectable food. Special thanks to Rev. Ken Jackson for his guidance and meaningful talk on "randomness"; to Rod Eller for a wonderful dedication and to the staff of J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home. We are so indebted to Jeff and Kendra Nurse and family for the wonderful reception held at their farm. Thank you to all who organized and contributed to a great social.

*Warmest regards,
Bruce, Carol, Bonnie and Kate*

"Death is more universal than life; everyone dies, but not everyone lives."

THE family of the late Marie Wilson would like to thank all those who sent flowers, cards and gifts to us during our recent loss. Special thanks to Lynn-Stone Funeral Home and Rev. Helen Prior for what they have done for us. Your friendship and support is appreciated.
