Red Lemon

Georgetown's newest hair salon is now open for business and bringing a little bit of New York City to the town. After working at, and managing, his family-run salon in Brampton for 25 years, owner Vince Ruso has opened Red Lemon. The Redken performing artist has many years of experience in the hair design industry and believes in two keys to success - education and balance. Vince and his staff all have top-notch experience and education in hair design and are always continuing this education. They also believe in balance. A balance of beautiful hair, personal development and superior customer service. Red Lemon specializes in colouring, highlighting, design and cuts. They also offer special occasion hair design.
