

DEATHS

Paddles Down

It is with great sadness, heavy hearts, yet joy that the family of Joanne Daquano announces her passing. Our Angel went home surrounded by loving family on Monday September 11th, 2006. Husband Mike along with three beautiful children Dylan, Dean and Darcy will lovingly remember Joanne. Joanne will fondly be remembered by her mother Kay d'Entremont, sister Jeannine (Kevin) d'Entremont-Farrar, brothers Dan (Linda), Dave (Sheri) and Paul d'Entremont. She is predeceased and has been welcomed in heaven by her father Del. She will be missed so dearly by Mike's parents Ted and Bev Daquano, and his sisters Kim (Michael) Zuraw, and Tina Daquano. Nieces and nephews Ryan, Caitlyn and Meaghan d'Entremont, Deni and Luc d' Entremont, Jamie, Erin and Cameron Farrar, Aurora and Darian Zuraw, will forever cherish her. All the rest of our extended family and wonderful array of friends who continue to support and amaze us will miss Joanne. Thank you to everyone for all of your thoughts and actions. Special thanks to the nurses of the Complex Continuing Care ward in the Georgetown Hospital, especially Lanni and Pat who provided care beyond the call of duty. A heartfelt thank you to Dr. Paul Zeni. The dictionary needs your picture beside the definition of community doctor. We keep in our hearts,
The love of the past,

In Memory Of

Terence Owen McGuinness

June 19th, 1940 - September 14th, 2005

He loved us all, we were family,
Without him, where would we be.
You gave us everything, we'll ever need,
Your wisdom and your kindness, you taught us indeed.
A Husband, a Father and our Papa too,
Lord only knows how much we miss you.
You represent the man, we need you to be,
And you'll always be with us in memory.

*Love all your,
Wee Little Smashers and family*

Catching the wind in the fall sky,
I think of your tiny spirit,
Watching over us.
