Police blotter

Man facing assault charge

An Acton man is facing charges after incidents at a party at a Mill St., Acton home and a Georgetown residence last Friday.

Police report a Georgetown man was grabbed by another man at the party who attempted to hit him in the head with a beer bottle. The assailant didn't succeed because he was restrained by others at the party.

The Georgetown man left the party and when he arrived at his home the suspect from the party was waiting for him.

Police say the man was holding a knife and yelling that he wanted to fight. He eventually put the knife in the car and brought out a crowbar, which he swung at the Georgetown man.

The Georgetown man wasn't injured and the other man left. Police were called.

After learning police were looking for him, the suspect turned himself into police on Wednesday.

Charged with assault with a weapon, weapons dangerous and two counts of breach of recognizance is Robert Rolfe, 20, of Gould Cr., Acton.

A Georgetown man was charged with having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after police stopped a vehicle for a Highway Traffic Act infraction in the Barber Dr. and James Young Dr. area Tuesday.

Charged is David Black, 32, of Barber Dr.

Halton Police are reminding area residents to ensure their purses and wallets are secure at work after receiving a report Tuesday that a man had walked into a department at Halton Hills Civic Centre (Oct. 6) and removed a wallet containing three credit cards from a man's unattended jacket.

The suspect is described as black, 6'1", 185 lbs., with short hair. He was wearing a blue blazer, white shirt, tie and grey pants. Police report the credit cards had been used in Mississauga, Toronto and Quebec.
