

Quintet of artists exhibit at the Main Street Inn

Five local artists, Ruth Bowes, Allenna Dean, Rosemary Harris, Mandy Irvine and Katherine Shaw exhibit their work at the Main Street Inn, 162 Main Street until October 28. The restaurant is open Tuesday through Sunday.

Country group caps nine-day anniversary celebrations

The Wilkinsons, Canada's first family of country, perform at the John Elliott Theatre on Saturday, Oct. 21, at 8 p.m.

The concert is the culmination of the nine-day celebration of the silver anniversary of the Halton Hills Library & Cultural Centre. The centre has been the centre of cultural activity in Halton Hills for the past 25 years.

Steve, Tyler and Amanda Wilkinsons perform a special "up close and personal" acoustic performance in the intimate surroundings of the John Elliott Theatre. In a world where music groups are constructed and contrived, it's a wonderful change to see a group with a chemistry and enthusiasm that are the family Wilkinsons.

Following the release of their hit single 26 Cents, award nominations began pouring in, including CMA's Horizon Award and Vocal Group of the Year and 2000 was their breakout year, receiving CCMA awards for Album of the Year, Single of the Year, Vocal Group or Duo of the Year and the prestigious Chevy Fans Choice Award.

For ticket and show information visit the Town of Halton Hills website at www.halton-hills.ca. Tickets are on sale now through the John Elliott Theatre Box Office, 905-877-3700.

Also, as part of the 25th Anniversary of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, artists from the community will show the public how they make their art. Here's your chance to see Arts in Motion, as 20 artists demonstrate their various art forms at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, 9 Church St. on Saturday, October 21, 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Bring the kids! It's fun and educational and admission is free. Some items will be available for sale at the show.
