Artist selected for show

Local artist Beth Cameron, has been creating greeting cards for friends and family for many years. In 2005, Cameron decided to combine her skills as an artist and graphic designer to create her own line of unique greeting cards.

Cameron recently entered her designs to win a booth at the annual Signatures Christmas Show at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre, and was awarded the booth space. The show runs Nov. 18 to Nov. 26, at The Metro Toronto Convention Centre. Cameron's greeting cards, some of which she hand embellishes, will be on display and for sale throughout the show.

To view Cameron's designs, or to contact her, visit www.hellogreetings.ca, or e-mail, beth@hellogreetings.ca.

GLT begins comedy's run; Globe holds auditions for winter musical

Georgetown Little Theatre Productions (GLT) kicked off its 46th theatre season Thursday night with Some Assembly Required. Written by Canadian Eugene Stickland, the comedy will be presented at the John Elliott Theatre, November 9-11 and 15-18. The cast includes veteran GLT actors Paul d'Entremont, Sheri Buker and Roscoe Peterson with newcomers, Barbara Stasiw and Eric Langen. For tickets call the Box Office, 905-877-3700.

Georgetown Globe Musicals presents You'll Get Used to It—The War Show in February. Auditions for male and female adult parts will be held at their Norval rehearsal hall on Nov. 11, 1-5 p.m. E-mail Beatrice Sharkey at sharkey@look.ca to arrange an appointment.
