

Twisters meet national stars

Members of the North Halton Twisters' Peewee Bs were thrilled to be one of just three girls' youth hockey teams to be selected to spend an hour on the ice with Canada's national women's hockey squad at the recent Four Nations' Cup tournament in Kitchener. The Twisters were able to skate, chat, get advice and autographs from Team Canada as part of the 'Skate with the Champions' program and took in a round-robin game with the Canadians playing the U.S. The Twisters' organization is preparing to host their annual tournament Nov. 24-26.

Senior Rebels qualify for OFSAA

The Georgetown senior Rebels are headed for another trip to the provincial high school volleyball championships after toppling Hamilton-area champion Thomas More on Wednesday in Steeltown at the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference Challenge.

And the Rebels, who lost the Halton AAAA title to Oakville-Trafalgar last week, won't have to play in another GHAC qualifying match today (Friday) thanks to O-T's victory over St. Jean de Brebeuf on Wednesday in the other GHAC Challenge contest. Both Halton schools automatically earned berths at the OFSAA championships later this month in Barrie thanks to their wins on Wednesday.

A Grand Entrance
Making an entrance is both fun and rewarding. Decorating your front entrance for the holiday season is inspirational to do and provides a festive welcome to your home.

Compliment your door with pre-made or do-it-yourself swags, garlands, ropes or wreaths. All are most effective when made with living greens. And the smell is out of this world. Don't forget to add some berries or other colour, use fruit, experiment and express yourself on your front door.

Planters are great fun too, whether in urns, pots or containers of your choice these festive beauties bring the majesty of the season to your entrance. The possibilities are endless when you explore nature's décor.

No entrance is complete without something to wipe you feet on. Some too beautiful to soil, a great selection of themed holiday mats are available to complete your grand entrance.

Stop by one of our garden centres this week and make a grand entrance of your own.
