

Acton Library offers digital photography workshop on Tuesday

Join Jim Warrington from the Halton Hills Camera Club as he provides an introduction to digital camera photography. Introduction to Digital Photography Workshop will be held on Tuesday November 21, 7-8:30 p.m. at the Acton branch of the Halton Hills Public Library. Warrington will talk about how to choose the right camera for your budget, the basics of digital photography, and more. Register in person or by calling 519-853-0301. Spaces are limited.

Parents invited to Web Aware presentation

On Monday, Nov. 20, Glen Williams School Council is hosting Mike Parkhill, Director of the Education Sector at Microsoft Canada, for a non-technical session called Be Web Aware— An Internet Awareness presentation, 6:30-8 p.m. in the Glen Williams Public School gym. This session is an Internet 101 session designed to show parents how they can provide a safe learning culture for their children when using their computers at home. Free babysitting and light refreshments will be provided. Info: glwchair@look.ca or call 905-877-9112.

ATHLETES of the Week

| Megan Milne | Sara Doolan | Emily Driedger |

Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Cameron Shortt and Sara Doolan. Shortt, a Grade 10 student, will make his second consecutive appearance at the OFSAA cross-country running championships this Saturday in Thunder Bay after placing third at the GHAC 6-km junior boys' race in Oakville. Doolan scored 10 points in a 41-34 loss for the Bearcats against E.C. Drury.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Emily Driedger and Chris Haynes. Driedger raced to a seventh-place result at GHAC cross-country in the midget girls' division and the Rebel team missed out on qualifying for OFSAA by just one point. Grade 10 student Haynes is the setter for Georgetown's undefeated junior boys' volleyball squad.

Christ the King High School Athletes of the Week are Megan Milne and Joe Cortese. Milne, a first-year senior, finished 10th at the GHAC cross-country running championships. Cortese registered four sacks, a safety and two fumble recoveries from the defensive tackle spot in the Jags' 20-9 loss to Milton District in junior boys' football.

NOW PROVE IT

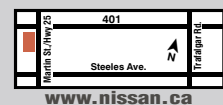

After 40, it gets harder to see up close. It's a natural condition called presbyopia. Regular visits to the eye doctor can keep things in focus.
