

Local group to hold Write for Rights night

Amnesty International presents Write for Rights with the Halton Hills group any time after 8 p.m. at the Shepherd's Crook pub, 86 Main St. S. in Georgetown.

Sign prepared cards and appeal letters for human rights around the world.

Amnesty International-Halton Hills will send greeting cards hand made by school children from this area. They will go to the group's adopted Cuban prisoners, and to human rights workers who need to know people care.

Everyone is welcome to drop in, join the fun, raise a glass, make a difference. Amnesty groups around the world will all be Writing for Rights. Help the group set a record for the number of cards and letters from Canada.

Future farmers of north Halton

The Halton 4-H team that competed at Scotiabank Classic at The Royal Winter Fair took time out to gather for a photo. The prestigious Scotiabank show had 374 competitors from 39 counties and seven provinces. Jodey Nurse of Georgetown was picked to give the thank you remarks on behalf of these competitors on the day of the closing ceremonies. From left, Troy Nurse (Georgetown), Jodey Nurse (Georgetown), Nicole Patterson (Milton), Lindsey McMullen (Milton), David Moore (Terra Cotta), Kaitlin DeVore (Milton), Katelyn Donaldson (Acton), Cristy Nurse (Georgetown), David Gooding (Milton). Cristy Nurse placed fifth out of 124 senior competitors in The Scotiabank Showmanship. Later in the week, she was third out of 94 entrants in The President's Cup, a 16 and over National showmanship competition sponsored by Holstein Canada.
