Break-in at local restaurant under construction nets thieves $50,000 in kitchen equipment

Halton Police report approximately $50,000 in kitchen equipment and tools was taken from the Kelsey's Restaurant under construction on Guelph St. during a break-in sometime between Saturday and Monday.

A chain on the main door was cut to gain entry.

Kitchen equipment taken included an Imperial steakhouse broiler, heavy duty hot plate, infrared cheese melter/broiler, heavy duty griddle, portable food warmer and commercial Panasonic microwave.

Police say more than one person would have been involved in the theft as the items ranged in weight from 300 to 500 lbs.

Drills and saws were among the tools taken.

Damage set at $80,000 in Acton dump truck blaze

An $80,000 1998 Peterbuilt Tri-Axle dump truck parked in a Fourth Line, Acton driveway was extensively damaged Saturday evening by a fire in the cab and engine compartment.

The wife of the truck's owner called the fire department at approximately 7:30 p.m. when she discovered the truck burning.

The cab and engine compartment were fully engulfed in flames when firefighters arrived.

The truck had been parked by the owner at about 3 p.m. after being washed and fuelled.
