In one of these part-time contracts, working 8 to 10 hours per month to July 1, 2007 (with the possibility of renewal), you will use your understanding of youth group dynamics, and excellent listening, presentation and organizational skills, to facilitate loosely structured discussion groups with youth as well as an 8-week skills development program for at-risk youth in high schools and community settings. You will inform youth about community resources, provide referrals, and identify and follow up with youth participants who require additional support.
