Senior Rebels look sharp in volleyball action

Georgetown's senior girls are rounding into playoff form after defeating Bishop Reding two games to one in league play last week.

The Rebels, backed by the defensive efforts of Kodi Veenstra, also won the championship of the Sheridan College tournament by beating Waterdown in the final.

In other action, Christ the King's junior girls took 12 straight sets on the way to winning the Raider Invitational championship at a tournament at Oakville's St. Thomas Aquinas on Thursday. Captained by Taylor Dowdall, the Jaguars qualified for the playoff round by coming back from being down 19-11 to defeat Milton's Bishop Reding and then downed the E.C. Drury Spartans in the championship match.
