Rebels improve record to 17-3

Continued from pg. 15

Neumann and guard Gavin Viray-Cox were named to the tourney all-star squad after the final, which was broadcast live on the local radio station.

In their opening contest of the VVS event, the Rebels downed Guelph's J.F. Ross 65-44 as Olinoski scored 19 points.

Georgetown now has a 17-3 overall record this season after a couple of other exhibition contests this week at the University of Western Ontario in London. And for the first time in recent memory, the Rebels beat a team from the Hamilton Catholic league as they bounced St. Mary's 49-45 on Wednesday. Olinoski topped the scoresheet with 21 points and Neumann sealed the win with a late basket.

In game two at Western, Georgetown dropped a 43-39 decision to Windsor Catholic Central.

The Rebels are 6-0 in the Halton AAAA senior boys' league and host Christ the King's Jaguars on Monday beginning at 3:30 p.m.

They're also entered in a top-flight tournament at St. Michael's College in Toronto Jan. 12-13, where Georgetown will take on the province's number-one-ranked team, the Henry Carr Crusaders.

WANTED: COMMUNITY MEMBERS

The Halton District School Board requires a maximum of three "members-at-large" to serve on its Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC).

The Committee, an advisory group to the Board, will bring forward information and recommendations regarding programs and services for exceptional pupils. Two trustees and 12 members representing local associations also serve on SEAC.

The "members at large" must have the following qualifications:

- a Canadian citizen of the age of 18 years or older
- a resident within the jurisdiction of the Halton District School Board, and
- a public school supporter

A Board employee is not eligible for appointment.

Interested community members should submit their application (resumé) with a letter indicating what strengths they would bring to this position, to:

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Future Stars to square off here next week

Burlington's Cory Conacher and Milton's David Vallorani, along with goaltender Kori Coelho from the first-place Oakville Blades. Sixteen-year-old Stouffville Spirit forward Corey Trivino has already committed to Boston University and is among the North Division's top rookie scorers.

"This won't be like your typical all-star game, because these kids are trying to get noticed and want to impress the scouts any way they can," said Bob Hooper of Georgetown, commissioner of the OPJHL for the past 10 years.

The 80-or-so players will be fed meals during their stay here and get to keep their jerseys as mementos.

A booster club will be open throughout the evening.

This year's OPJHL All-Star Game will be held Wednesday, Jan. 24 in Markham. Rosters have yet to be announced.
