

Raiders roll over Milton, Blues

Raider forward Ryan Ford had stitches removed from the underside of an eyelid on Tuesday after taking an accidental stick to the face during practice last week. Richmond said the plan is to give the high-scoring Ford the next week off and that he could be ready to return for the final regular-season contests with Brampton and Hamilton.

Finegan notched a first-period hat trick on Saturday against Milton as the eighth-place IceHawks outshot the hosts 13-11 and trailed 3-2, but Georgetown took over from there, skating to a 7-2 win. Spencer Metcalfe (2), Matt Carter and Rob Sgarbossa rounded out the scoring.

In an 8-2 romp over Bramalea on Friday, George Lovatsis had a pair of goals for the visitors and singles went to Whelan, Jon Southgate, DeJong, Finegan, Sgarbossa and newcomer Ray, with his first as a Raider.

Georgetown will host Mississauga on Saturday evening and a makeup game in Buffalo with the Jr. Sabres has been rescheduled for Monday night.
