Raiders' trio shines at all-star game

All three of the Georgetown Raider representatives at Wednesday's OHA Provincial Jr. A Hockey League all-star game at York University hit the scoresheet in the North/West's 8-2 trouncing of the South/East.

Winger Kyle Schwende scored once and set up two others while his regular Raider linemate, Adam DeJong, recorded an assist. Defenceman Matt Thomson scored one of the four North/West goals in the third period and ended up with a two-point game.

Brampton's Matt Ferreira and Steve Mullin from the Hamilton Red Wings headed up the rout with four points each.

The Raiders have six games remaining in the regular season, including a key clash in Burlington tonight (Friday) against the Cougars. Georgetown leads Burlington by three points with a couple of games in hand in the race for fourth place in the OPJHL's West Division and home ice in the first round of playoffs, where the two clubs are expected to meet up.

Also on the slate for the 28-9-3-3 Raiders is a home contest with the Mississauga Chargers at the Alcott Arena on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. They'll also travel to Buffalo on Monday for a game that had to be rescheduled because of last October's snowstorm in western New York.

Girls and boys age 9-14 are welcome to sign up for the Knights of Columbus' basketball free throw competition set for tonight (Friday) at St. Brigid's Catholic School in Georgetown South.

Sports In Brief

Registration begins at 6:30 p.m. and the competition is set to start at 7 p.m. No underage contestants will be permitted.

Awards will be presented to the top three shooters in each division.

For more info or to obtain an entry form, call Mauro Uliana at 905-873-4042.

The Georgetown Roller Hockey League will hold registration for its upcoming season next week, with divisions for players age six years up to adults played on Wednesday nights from April to July.

The first registration date will be held at Mold-Masters SportsPlex on Saturday, Feb. 3 from 3-5 p.m. Cost to register is $197.95 (including GST).

Krysa to fight in Halifax March 31

be entering a hostile environment for his Extreme Cage Combat 5 Canadian title fight March 31 in Halifax against hometown boy Jason MacKay, who also sports a 4-0 record.

"It's a good step-up fight for Shaun. It gives him an opportunity to showcase for something bigger down the road," said Chris Boreland, Krysa's coach and former competitive fighter. "If you've got a Canadian championship, they like to give him a chance to defend it and then they might give him a world title shot, so he'd be fighting an international fighter of some recognition. He still has to win his fights first to get good opportunities from the bigger organizations, but hopefully soon we'll have a UFC competitor all the way from Georgetown."

Krysa has a multi-fight contract with APEX Championship Fighting and MacKay stands in the way of Krysa's goal of getting recruited by the two big MMA organizations, UFC and Pride Fighting, for much bigger paydays and exposure.

"You have to live your dream, right?" the GDHS grad added. "Everyone goes to school and does their thing and I'd bet about half of them don't get to achieve their goals in life, in the end settling for whatever they feel like doing. It took a lot of sleepless nights but I decided this is what I'm going to do. If it doesn't work out I can always go back to sales if I have to, but for the next year I'm going to go for it."

Also scheduled to be on the Halifax card from the Boreland gym are local residents Stjepan Vujnovic and Ray Penney.
