

40 years of service

John Cummins, right, a longtime member of Georgetown Anglers and Hunters Association, was recently honoured for his more than 40 years membership, with the presentation of a plaque by Georgetown Anglers and Hunters Association past president Daryl Giberson, as a few members dropped by to see Cummins at Extencicare Halton Hills.

Free income tax clinics for low-income taxpayers

Income tax returns will be done free of charge by volunteers from the local branch of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario. This service is only for low-income taxpayers. Total income requirements for each household unit are $15,000 without dependents and $22,500 with dependents.

The clinics will be held at the Georgetown Branch of the Halton Hills Public Library on Tuesday, March 13 and Thursday, March 15, from 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

The Acton Branch of the Halton Hills Public Library will hold their clinic March 22nd from 6 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. This service is offered by appointment only.

Please visit or call the appropriate branch to register. Register in person at the Georgetown branch (9 Church St., Georgetown) or by phone at 905-873-2681 ext. 2511. Register in person at the Acton branch (17 River St., Acton) or by phone at 519-853-0301.

Space is limited.

Acton Cancer Society seeks campaign co-ordinator

The Acton Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society is preparing for its 2007 residential campaign later this month, but is already looking ahead to its 2008 campaign.

The group is looking a volunteer residential campaign co-ordinator for the 2008 campaign.

The current co-ordinator is willing to train and work along with her replacement during this year's campaign.

The co-ordinator will work with a team of volunteers towards the common goal of helping those who are living with cancer and finding a cure for cancer. In this position, the co-ordinator will organize and distribute campaign materials to the Zone Captains and assist with recruiting volunteers for the annual door-to-door campaign.

For more information, please call Cathy, 519-853-1424.

The Acton branch is also looking for canvassers in the following areas: Kingham Hill, Honeyfield, ActoValley, Danville and the area behind Sobey's. A few hours of your time is all that is needed.

Diane and Gary Hunt are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Jennifer Leanne to James Sean son of Louise and Jim Burnham.
 Wedding to take place March 15, 2008.

Happy 99th Birthday Valera Marshall

Lots of love from
