Senior Rebels ousted in OFSAA's round of eight

The Rebels rolled through the Halton league season and regional playdowns without a match loss and were ranked 10th out of 16 teams heading into the provincials.

Georgetown then won all three of its preliminary-round games on Tuesday, including a 25-17, 25-22 victory over fourth-seeded Waterdown and comeback three-set triumphs over Scarborough's Woburn (17-25, 25-10, 15-11) and Saunders of London (24-26, 26-24, 15-10).

Against fifth-rated Aurora in the round of eight, the senior Rebels took the first game 25-18 but lost the next two 22-25, 14-16 and were eliminated.

Anderson CVI of Whitby defeated Kitchener's Forest Heights for the 2007 championship as the top two seeds met in the final.

Bowlers off to provincials

The Bantam girls' Youth Bowling Council team from Georgetown Bowl has made it to the third stage of the 4 Steps To Stardom and will take on the best in the province this weekend in Rexdale. These bowlers have qualified from their house league and then from the Zone F region. Members of the team (front, from left) are: Mary-Lynne Peel, Eliza Lanneval, Halie Wilson, Michelle Borgal, Katherine Peel and coach Dee Ridley. Photos by Eamonn Maher

Georgetown Bowl will be well represented at this Sunday's Youth Bowling Council provincial championships with qualifiers in both individual and team categories. Nicholas Ridley (third from right) posted scores at the Zone F tournament last month that sent him on to this weekend's Bantam singles competition in Willowdale. Georgetown's Bantam boys are set to roll in the team event in North York with the goal of making the national YBC championships, also known as the 4 Steps To Stardom. Members of the team (front, from left): Jason Hunt, Jason Reid, Brandon Saulnier, Nicholas Ridley, Nick Hancock, Ryan Keenie and coach Dave Ridley.
