

March Break is magical at the library

Parents and caregivers, are you looking for activities to keep children busy during the March Break? Halton Hills Public Library has drop-in crafts every afternoon until Friday, March 16. Kids can drop in anytime, 2-4 p.m. to make a fun magical craft. Crafts take about 15 minutes to complete.

Preschool Library Programs

Halton Hills Public Library offers free story programs for little people! Baby Tales is a one-on-one program for infants 6-23 months and their grownups. Tales for Twos features songs, stories and fun for 2 year-olds and their grownups. Library Lion Tales is for children 3-5 years old and they attend the program on their own.

These programs are offered in both the Georgetown and Acton branches and require pre-registration.

Beginning March 6, you can register online with our Reg-e system at www.library.hhpl.on.ca or in person at 9 Church Street in Georgetown or 17 River Street in Acton. You will need a Family PIN and Personal ID numbers for each family member. Programs begin after Easter.

For more information, please contact 905-873-2681 or 519-853-0301.

Free Drop-In Library Programs

Family Storytime is a fun drop-in program for parents and young children to enjoy together. The program is 30 minutes long, with stories, music and movement. No registration required! For more information, visit www.library.hhpl.on.ca or call 905-873-2681 ext. 2520 or 519-853-0301. Storytime will be held at the Acton Community Centre on Thursdays, April 12-May 17, 2 p.m., at the Georgetown branch on Wednesdays, April 11-May 16, 9:45 a.m. and Saturdays, April 14-May 26, 11 a.m. (library closed May 19) and at the Gellert Community Centre on Fridays, April 13-May 18, 10:30 a.m.

For more information about any of the library's programs, please call 905-873-2681 ext. 2520 or 5190853-0301 or visit www.library.hhpl.on.ca/kids_programs.asp.

Introduction to Digital Photography

Get more out of your digital photos. Whether you own a digital camera or are planning to buy one, this free workshop will help! The Halton Hills Camera Club in connection with the Halton Hills Public Library is hosting an Introduction to Digital Photography session on Wednesday, March 21, at the Georgetown branch from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Registration by calling the Georgetown Branch at 905-873-2681 ext. 2511.

Did you know you have cancer-fighting powers?

Well, you do.

You (yes, you!) can fight cancer by becoming a volunteer with the Canadian Cancer Society.

All you need to do is spend three hours selling daffodils or canvassing door to door, and you'll be helping us fund research to help more Canadians survive cancer. And that's a powerful thing.

Three hours for you, a lifetime to a cancer survivor.

To volunteer, visit cancer.ca/volunteerpower or contact your local Canadian Cancer Society office.
