

Blue Fins' intro swimmers fare well at Guelph meet

While the competitive Halton Hills Blue Fins swimmers tuned up for the Central Region and Short Course Provincial Championship, the intro group made some waves of their own at the Guelph Novice Meet, hosted by the Guelph Marlins.

Swimming against a large field of teams from around the Golden Horseshoe, Blue Fins swimmers posted some impressive results and put the HHBF competitive group on notice that many of them are ready to join their ranks. Top three finishers included:

Practice makes perfect

Mckenzie Mactavish (top) tried some of his skills with Ronald Skorobogat at Georgetown Aikido's week-long March Break camp last week that enabled the kids to try out and practise the skills they've learned.

Midget Rebels win Halton volleyball championship

In this best-of-three semifinal, the Rebels won again in straight sets, maintaining their undefeated record of not having lost a set or game in league play all season.

That win brought them to the finals against Holy Trinity, the number two seed. The opposing side took them by surprise, getting out to a 9-1 lead, while the Rebels struggled and dropped their first league game of the season 25-15.

Game two started with 11 straight points for the Rebels, with ace serving from Amanda Cunningham, Rhianna Malcolm, and Sarah Traynor. The passing was much better as defensive specialist Lauren Sokolowski put the ball right to the net. This was followed up by some great setting from Haley Besworth and Cunningham, who found middle hitter Sarah Chapin and power hitter Christie Laidlaw for some kills on the way to a 25-13 victory.

With the match all knotted up at one, the momentum continued for the Rebels as they took the championship with a 15-12 win in the deciding game.
