Just a few spaces are remaining in the Georgetown Minor Baseball Association's newly expanded Coach Pitch division for six- and seven-year-olds in 2007.

The T-Ball division has been eliminated this year and instead youths born in 2000 or 2001 will be grouped into the Coach Pitch league, which is also known as Squirt.

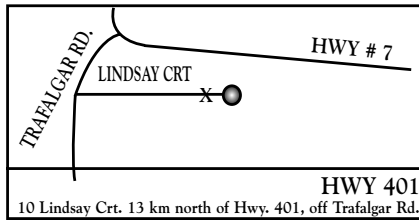

Blastball will remain as a skills development program for children whose birth dates fall in 2002.

Impact Black in provincial tournament

Three Georgetown Impact girls' volleyball club teams played in Bugarski Cup zone tournaments recently in preparation for the upcoming provincial championships and the under-15 'Black' squad was victorious in Barrie.

The Impact dropped its first game of the day to London's Forest City before coming back to win the match, then clinched first in their pool by sweeping away the host Barrie Elites and the Durham Regional Volleyball Club.

In the playoffs, Impact Black rolled through the Northumberland Breakers and the Durham Attack, setting up a rematch with DRVC in the semifinals, in which Georgetown won 25-19, 25-15.

The Halton Hurricanes provided the opposition for the championship, with the Impact prevailing 25-19, 23-25, 15-13, earning a berth in the Ontario Volleyball Association Tier I championships April 14-15 in Windsor.

Playing in an under-15 division to tune up for provincials, the under-14 Red Impact earned silver medals at a zone tourney in Collingwood, edged out by Midland's Georgian Bay Vistas 22-25, 25-15, 15-10. Georgetown's under-15 Red placed fifth at the Collingwood zone tourney.
