DEATH

CUNNEYWORTH, Allan Ronald November 8th, 1952 - April 12th, 2007
Allan passed away suddenly at Georgetown Hospital Thursday, April 12th, due to an aneurism, after declaring his undying love for his wife and soul-mate, Janet (Howard). Beloved father of Amanda Rae (Andrew Dolman) and his very special daughter Amber-Lee, he is also survived by his mother, Mary Angela (Oresky) and his brothers, Wayne Edgar and Robert George (Connie Mitchell), predeceased by his father, Ronald Henry Victor. Allan's entire existence was a journey of extremes, of action and reaction, alternating between pain and joy, abandonment and recovery, escapism and responsibility, but always a journey of adventure, love and humour. He drew amazing strength from his family and friends. Allan was proud, intelligent, cynical and genuinely thankful for all the gifts that were given to him. He sincerely tried to pay forward the blessings that he had received in his life. As a founder with his father-in-law, Allan Howard, of Al and Al's Cheese House at Snelgrove Auction, he carried the name on to his next business, Al and Al's Meats of Acton, Ontario. His customers will long remember Al's "Beware of Mon-goose" sign and heart-stopping furry Jack-in-the-Box. It's a credit to his diplomacy skills that he was never sued. Following in his father's footsteps, Al was a butcher by trade. He worked at Better Beef, now Cargill Meat Solutions, in Guelph since 2000, where his skills and his unique character won the respect, admiration and friendship of all personnel, labour and management alike. In his later years, Al renewed a childhood passion for pigeons and became one of the more colourful members of the Acton Pigeon Club, where he was known, forever and always, as Acton's best pigeon flyer. This club and his other honoured personal charity were focal points at the end of his life. Allan and his contagious laughter will be remembered fondly by all who knew him. Family and friends will be received at Blue Springs Funeral Home in Acton, Sunday 2:00-4:00 pm and Monday 2:00-4:00 and 7:00-9:00 pm. Funeral service will be at the Bethel Christian Reform Church Tuesday, April 17th, 2007 at 2:00 pm, with interment at Fairview Cemetery, Acton. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Acton Baptist Church or a charity of your choice.

IN MEMORIAM

HILTS - In loving memory of our dear mother Viola Hilts, who passed away April 19th, 1994.
Dear Mom when you passed away that day,
A piece of our hearts was torn away,
You gave us life, you gave us love,
And the courage to rise above.
You taught us how to grow and share,
And through the years you showed you cared,
Our deepest love as long as we live,
To you our Mom, we truly give.
Sadly missed and always remembered by daughters, Muriel and Helena

BURNS - Mellor, Patti

In loving memory of our daughter who passed away April 17th, 1982.
Silently we grieve,
And brush away our tears,
The memories she left behind,
Will last throughout the years.
Sadly missed and lovingly remembered, Mom and Dad

WARD, Joyce

In loving memory of Joyce Ward
A beautiful wife, mom, grandmother and great-grandmother, who passed away 2 years ago on April 18th, 2005.
Deeply missed by your husband, Geoff, daughter, Julie Ann, son Geoffrey Brian and sons David, Wayne and all your family.
Fondly remembered by all who knew her

PET DEATH

FRASER, Winston Beauregard Chartwell June 1st, 1995 to April 11th, 2007
Died peacefully, surrounded by his family, in Ballin-fad, Ontario. Winston, aged 93 in dog years, was a disgraced dropout of obedience school, but later graduated from Ilick U, with an Honours Degree in Begging. Winston, brother and master of Teddy Bear Fraser and soul mate of five adoring Fraser children. Dear "Leap of Faith" and "Children's bribe for moving house" of Lois and Al Fraser. Winston's hobbies: watching squirrels, chasing them after they had run away, eating, barking (but only after "finding his voice" two years ago), eating, raiding the compost, listening for the fridge to open, watching for the fridge to open (once his hearing went), stealing red licorice and more eating. Favourite exercise: blinking. Favourite moment: peeing down the front hall register in front of Mom during training (that woman has no sense of humour). The funeral service was conducted by the Reverend Ross Pezzack, of Georgetown Animal Clinic. Cremation has taken place. Interment Playfair Island, Muskoka, July 2007. In lieu of flowers, in memory contributions to the Humane Society, or pet the dog of your choice in Winston's honour. Winston's final words were: "I apologize for all the food I stole from the coffee table during parties". Rest in Peace, Dear Friend.
