

Home & Leisure Show to draw headliners

The 2007 Halton Hills Home & Leisure show will be headlined by HGTV's Real Reno's Master Contractor, Jim Caruk.

The show will be held at Mold-Masters SportsPlex this Friday, May 11, 1-9 p.m. and Saturday, May 12, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. It will showcase over 80 local businesses and is expected to attract in excess of 3,000 attendees. Admission is $2 per person or $5 per family with proceeds to Junior Achievement of Halton Hills.

Caruk will offer up his top renovation tips, followed by a Q & A session with the audience. His ability to "inspire with finesse" makes him one of today's most charismatic renovation experts sought after by some of Toronto's most successful architects and designers. Caruk will be onstage Saturday at 12:15 p.m. and 3 p.m.

"In keeping with our commitment to produce a bigger, more substantial show this year, the Chamber is delighted to welcome Bell Canada and Johnson Associates Halton Ltd, as the Show's main sponsors," says Trade Show Committee chair Herma Buchanan. "We are also very pleased to have as our Master of Ceremonies Tom Reynolds of The Weather Network."

Visitors to the show will also have the opportunity to meet two-time Canadian Women's Motorcycle Road Racing champion, Shawna Aron. Aron is well known in racing circles for her high-ranking finishes all over eastern Canada including Shannonville and Mosport, and Mt. Tremblant, Quebec. You'll be right in the action at the Gecko Racing booth where you'll get a chance to meet Aron in person, get an autographed poster, see all kinds of race paraphernalia, and have a close look at her winning wheels. Thanks to the generosity of her main sponsor, Yamaha Motor Canada, Aron is able to share with the public her race bike, ATV and ice race bike.

TOM REYNOLDS

Four hundred lucky children will have the opportunity for a Meet & Greet with Dora the Explorer. Dora the Explorer will be greeting children Saturday morning from 9 a.m. to noon. Due to her popularity, wristbands are required. Wristbands will be available beginning Friday at 1 p.m. at the show. Limit four wristbands per person. Parents are encouraged to bring a camera.

SHAWNA ARON

Visitors will have full access to all stage shows and the opportunity to see Wal-Mart's spring and summer fashions for the entire family. With lots of free draws, great gifts and deals from our local businesses, this is a not to be missed event. For more information on the show visit www.haltonhillschamber.on.ca/NetworkingAndNews

Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce has been the business advocate of choice since 1912 representing over 510 local businesses who together employ over 7,000 people.
