

Local squad makes 'Impact' at tournaments

The Georgetown Impact Black under-15 girls entered a couple of Ontario Volleyball Association provincial championship tournaments and came away with gold- and silver-medal-winning performances. Seeded 13th out of 16 teams in the OVA under-15 girls' Tier I tournament in Windsor, Impact Black went undefeated through the preliminary round and into the final match, in which Georgetown was edged out 25-23, 25-23 by the Waterloo Tigers. The under-15s decided to get some added experience by moving up to the under-16 age group, finishing first in the Tier II championship tourney in Barrie. Team members (front, from left) are: Nicole Bond, Tory McCracken, Lindsay McCabe, Nicole Arthurs. Second row: Sarah Chapin, Arissa Fogolin, Hillary Banks, Haley Besworth, Sarah Traynor. Back row: Coaches Patty Hall, Kevin Hughes. Submitted photo
