Local music students excel at Peel Music Festival

ROSEMARIE CHALES
Special to The IFP

Eleven piano students of Hi & Low Keys Piano Studio participated in the 80th Anniversary Peel Music Festival recently and brought home 13 awards.

Proudly tickling those ivories after months and months of hard work were students ranging from Grade 3-9.

The high-level performance of Geneviève Hooker (twice gold medal winner) and Claudia Paonessa (one gold and one bronze) was noted by the adjudicator. They both were invited to play their Chop Sticks duet at the Rose Theatre, in Brampton, at the Festival of the Stars Concert and were awarded a monetary prize.

Hi & Low Keys Piano Studio will be presenting its year-end recital on Saturday, June 23 in the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, 9 Church St. There will be two shows at 12 p.m. and 3 p.m.
