Local athletes fare well at qualifier

Christ the King High School in Georgetown hosted hundreds of local athletes earlier this week for the North Halton Catholic elementary school track and field meet.

The top two finishers in each event qualified to compete in the Halton Region championships, which were held yesterday (Thursday) in Burlington. Results from that competition weren't available at press time.

Following are the Halton Hills-based athletes who qualified at the North Halton meet to compete in the regional finals:
