

Big race tonight for Acton trotter

Just two weeks after stepping onto the track for the first time this season, three-year-old trotting filly Matriarch heads back to Mohawk Racetrack as one of the early favourites for Friday's $130,000 Gold Final.

"I was hoping to have her ready sooner, but she had a little setback in the spring," explains Acton resident Ted Nadhazi. "I was actually aiming her for the Elegance and Casual Breeze, but that didn't work out. That was disappointing, so I'm grateful now."

Matriarch made her sophomore debut at Mohawk in a qualifier on June 29, posting a steady effort in 2:00, and then impressed fans at the Campbellville oval last Friday with a come from behind victory in her Gold Elimination. The filly and driver Rick Zeron made a bold three-wide move at the three-quarters and laid down a :28.3 last quarter to claim the 1:58 victory.

"She trotted time-wise what I thought she could, but I didn't think that would get the job done to win," says

Nadhazi. "I had moderate expectations going in, and she superseded my expectations."

In spite of her late start this season, Matriarch is no novice. The Duke Of York daughter made nine starts as a two-year-old, scoring one win, one second and two thirds. In her last four starts she posted a win and a second in overnight action, finished third in her Breeders Crown Elimination and then made a break within sight of the wire in the Breeders Crown Final.

The miscue in the Breeders Crown Final was the last of a series of three heartbreakers Matriarch threw at Nadhazi last season. The other two came in her only Gold Series appearances.

"She made three breaks last year at the three worst times," laments the horseman. "So I'm not too excited, I'm just kind of going with the flow. She has some heart, and some class, and I hope she has more opportunities to show that."
