

HOME COMING 2007

GDHS reunion goes Saturday

Page 4

THE INDEPENDENT & FREE PRESS

Halton Hills' Community Newspaper

Wednesday, July 25, 2007

Do you remember when?

Pages 7-8

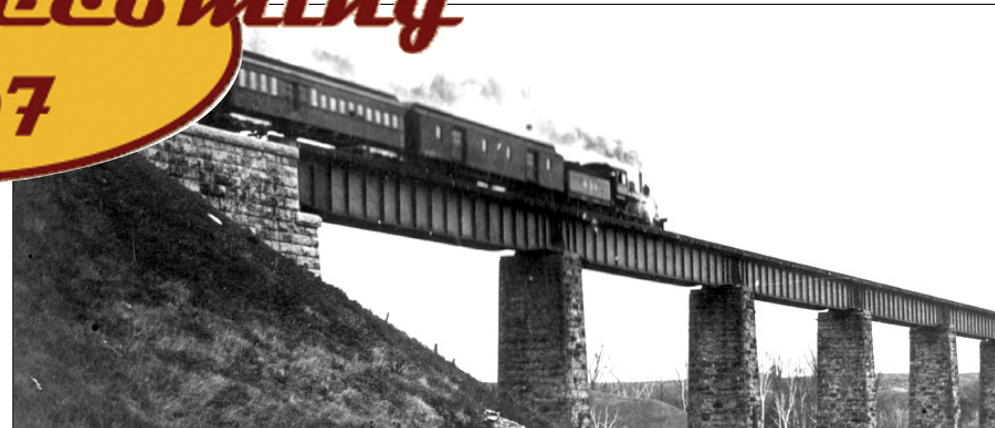

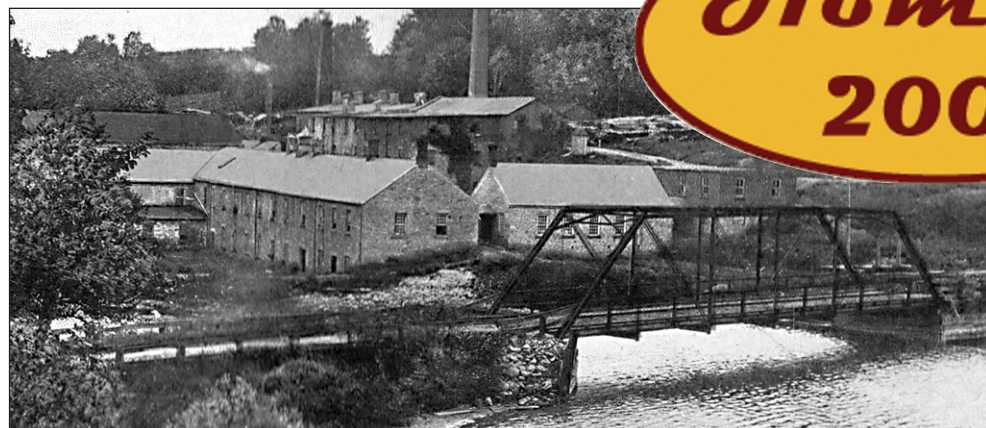

12 Pages

Special pullout section

Welcome home!

Homecoming
2007

Clockwise from top left: A Georgetown High gym class from the late 1940s; GDHS principal Len Lambert and teacher Gertrude Fatt and Henry Heldman in the late 1930s; the Grand Trunk Railway Iron Bridge and the Credit River near the former Barber Paper Mill. Photos courtesy Marg Helson

Weekend forecast is for fun, fun and more fun

Party on!

After more than two years of planning, Homecoming 2007—a grand reunion—arrives this weekend. Organizers expect as many as 5,000 people to take part in the inaugural event which already has more than 2,000 registrants.

Homecoming 2007 is a reunion celebration of Georgetown for both current residents and those who have moved away.

Dozens of activities have been planned for the course of the three-day event, which runs Friday to Sunday.

On Friday the registration/sign in will run from 5-7 p.m. at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex where registrants can pick up registration packages, which will include wristbands, tickets, and the Homecoming guide

From 7-9 p.m. Friday there will be a Meet & Mingle (wine and cheese party), at the SportsPlex.

Among the highlights on Saturday, Georgetown District High School will host a 120th reunion from 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

and a reunion dance will be held at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex Saturday night featuring six local bands—including a reunion of Station House.

On Sunday Homecoming wraps up with a March of Remembrance/Closing Ceremony along Main Street beginning at 3 p.m.

For more information on Homecoming 2007 and to view a list of who has registered visit www.georgetown2007.ca.

Schedule of events page 3

WELCOME HOME!

GEORGETOWN MARKET PLACE

280 Guelph St. - Hwy. 7 Georgetown

905-873-8918

www.georgetownmarketplace.com

Over 60 stores & services to serve you!