Six bands to provide entertainment

M.A.C.

Originally formed in 2001, the mainly 50's and 60's classic rock band reformed in 2006, playing in and around Georgetown. M.A.C. consists of Tom "Smallfoot" Anderson (lead and rhythm guitar), Billy "Sticks" Taylor (drums and vocals), Albert "Fingers" O'Sullivan (formerly of Night shift and Shannon—lead, rhythm guitar and vocals) Lloyd "Max" McIntyre (formerly of The Shaynes—bass guitar and vocals) and Dave "Boothy" Booth (lead singer and percussion). Booth and McIntyre competed against each other in the "Battle of the Bands" at the Roseroom above the Memorial Arena 42 years ago.

Hawk's Nest

Neil Cotton & Hawk's Nest is a veteran-performing group from Georgetown. The genres of music played include old and new country and roots rock 'n roll.

A songwriting/recording highlight is Neil's tribute to Ronnie Hawkins called, Mayor of Old Yonge Street. It was on radio, and Neil performed it live on CHTV in 2002. Neil has also, for this special occasion, written the Homecoming song, Georgetown Will Always Be Home.

The band members for Homecoming 2007 will be: Joey Ace (pedal-steel guitar), Neil Cotton (lead vocals and guitar), John Cox (bass), Gary Creary (lead guitar), Robert Porter (drums).

The Boomerangs

Stephen Hurley, on keyboards, brings 30 years of music experience to the stage. George Stigger and Jack Pignatell, both lifetime residents of Georgetown played together as teenagers in the 60's. Doug Hastings, also born and raised in Georgetown, has had 20 years of drumming on the road and is glad to be back home. Norm Douglas is no stranger to the stage. The band covers The Beatles, Buddy Holly, Chubby Checker and The 'King'.

This year, summer is on us.
