IN MEMORIAM

COURTNEY GASCHO
 In memory of our precious daughter who died seven long years ago on July 31st, 2000.
 As time goes by our lives do change as we go from place to place
 But no matter what we go through, we will never forget your face.
 Your laugh is still within our minds your giggles still make us smile, In some ways it's like you're still here, but in many ways its been a while
 You'll always stay in our hearts, our love is in each beat
 We'll think of you with glowing thoughts, Until the day we again meet.
Loved and missed more than words can describe by Dad, Mom and Shane

SCHREIBER, John - In loving memory of my dear grandfather who passed away August 2nd, 1992.
 On this your 15th Anniversary of entering eternal glory.

Thank you for the memories; playing checkers together, our walks and talks together, planting and watching a garden grow, meals together, sleep overs with my cousin.
 Thank you for your prayers, love, support, care, understanding and concern while I went through my difficult years AND for the opportunity to return it to you during your difficult months.
 Thank you for your: Faith which continues to influence me to this very day. Most importantly, I thank God for you and the role that you played in my life, no one else could have taken your place.
 Until we meet again, to play checkers together, may I bring a smile to your face!
Always loved and dearly missed by your favourite grandchild, Joyce
