Couple confronted in home Hammer-wielding man sought

Halton Regional Police are investigating a violent break-in to a home in Georgetown.

Just before 10 p.m. on July 21 a homeowner and his girlfriend were watching a movie when they heard a noise at their front door. The homeowner opened the front door to investigate the noise and was confronted by a male with a hammer, who forced his way into the house.

The suspect told him he was a police officer and threatened him with the hammer.

The homeowner's girlfriend quickly called the police and the suspect fled the scene.

He is described as male white, 6', 220 lbs. in his mid 40's, bald, wearing a beige hat, grey/blue faded sweatshirt. Possibly wearing jeans.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward.

You will never have to give your name or testify in court.

Crime Stoppers of Halton does not subscribe to call display. Thanks to our tipsters... whoever you are. A safer community is your call. Please call 1-800-222-TIPS (1-800-222-8477) or check the website at www.haltoncrimestoppers.com

Gap Foundation makes $5,000 donation to Friendship Link to assist local youth

The Gap Inc. Foundation recently donated $5,000US to The Friendship Link for youth in/from care.

The Halton-based Friendship Link works with children's aid societies and youth organizations to assist in providing youth with resources to help them stay connected to community programs.

"It is extremely important that we give youth, both in foster care and those no longer in care, as much guidance, support and educational information in a variety of different formats," said The Friendship Link executive director/founder Christine Williams.

"The overwhelming generosity of The Gap Foundation has already enabled us to outreach to youth in care. We have recently completed a drive to inform youth about potential summer employment opportunities."

The Friendship Link for youth in/from care is a non-profit registered charity organization providing positive support to youth in and from foster care. For more information on The Friendship link please go to www.thefriendshipink.com
